

Arizona Department of Education
Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction John Huppenthal

Media Advisory

October 19, 2011

CONTACT: Andrew LeFevre

602-542-5072

andrew.lefevre@azed.gov

Superintendent of Public Instruction John Huppenthal to Host State Schools Chiefs from Across the Nation at EVIT Campus

Phoenix, AZ, Friday, November 18, 2011 – Today, Superintendent of Public Instruction John Huppenthal will host over 40 state's schools chiefs and their staffs at a tour of the EVIT campus and a policy discussion as part of the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO) Annual Policy Forum being held in Phoenix from Nov. 17-19. EVIT is known throughout the country as a model for career and technical education. It provides students with the advanced skills and training needed to thrive in today's competitive job market while getting a jump start on their college or advanced degree.

Who: John Huppenthal, Superintendent of Public Instruction
Superintendents, Commissioners and staff from 40 states
Dr. Sally Downey, EVIT Superintendent
Christian Buzzelle, medical assisting student at EVIT
Dr. Art Piccinati, a local physician and supporter of EVIT

Where: East Valley Institute of Technology (EVIT)
1601 West Main Street
Mesa, AZ 85201

When: Friday, November 18, 2011 at 12:00 PM

###